

John Brandriff has lived in Riverside County for 26 years, residing in Riverside for 16 of those years. Active in both the City and the County, John is a former member of the Human Relations Commission and a current member of the County's Community Court Planning Committee. He is also the current coordinator for La Sierra Hills Neighborhood Watch. John has been employed by UPS for 25 years. He enjoys camping and boating on the Colorado River with his family. Term expires in 2008.